DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after allowance or after an Office action under Ex Parte Quayle, 25 USPQ 74, 453 O.G. 213 (Comm'r Pat. 1935). Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114.

Applicant's submission filed on 10/18/2004 has been entered.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-15 are allowed. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: See applicant argument dated 04/27/2004 for detail .

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 16-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by US Patent No. 6,145,001 by Scholl et al.

In claim 16, Scholl teaches about a network device managing apparatus for managing a network device based on processing first display information of the device “document” and second display information linked from the first display information (hyperlinks within document), said apparatus comprising (Fig 3) (Col 8, lines 1-20):

recognizing means for recognizing link information embedded in the first display information (Col 8, lines 15-20);

obtaining means for obtaining an instruction for displaying information based on the second display information (Col 8, lines 20-30);

acquiring means for acquiring, from the network device, management information of the device related to the second display information in accordance with the link information recognized by said recognizing means before said obtaining means obtains the instruction to display the information based on the second display information (Col 7, lines 45-55) (Col 8, lines 20-25); and transfer means for transferring, to a predetermined communication link, output information corresponding to the second display information including the acquirement management information (Col 7, lines 45-55).

In claim 17, Scholl teaches about a device according to claim 16, wherein the first display information is described in a web page (Col 6, lines 15-25).

Art Unit: 2144

In claim 18, Scholl teaches about a device according to claim 16, wherein said acquiring means acquires management information in accordance with template data which describes management information to be acquired from the network device (Col 7, lines 25-40).

In claim 19, Scholl teaches about a network device managing method for managing a network device based on processing first display information of the device (document) and second display information linked from the first display information (hyperlink within the document), said method comprising the steps of (Fig 3) (Col 8, lines 1-20):

recognizing link information embedded in the first display information (Col 8, lines 15-20);

obtaining instruction to be used for displaying information based on the second display information (Col 8, lines 20-30);

acquiring management information of the device related to the second display information in accordance with the link information recognized in said recognizing step before the instruction to display the information based on the second display information is obtained in said obtaining step (Col 7, lines 45-55) (Col 8, lines 20-25); and generating output information corresponding to the second display information including the acquired management information (Col 8, lines 45-55).

In claim 20, Scholl teaches about a device according to claim 19, wherein the first display information is described in a web page (Col 6, lines 15-25).

In claim 21, Scholl teaches about a device according to claim 19, wherein said acquiring step includes acquiring management information in accordance with template data which describes management information to be acquired from the network device (Col 7, lines 25-40).

In claim 22, Scholl teaches about a network device managing apparatus for managing a network device based on processing first display information of the device and second display information linked from the first display information, said apparatus comprising(Fig 3) (Col 8, lines 1-20):

a recognizing unit adapted to recognize link information embedded in the first display information (Col 8, lines 15-20);

an obtaining unit adapted to obtain an instruction for displaying information based on the second display information; an acquiring unit adapted to acquire, from the network device, management information of the device related to the second display information in accordance with the link information recognized by said recognizing means before said obtaining unit obtains the instruction to display the information based on the second display information (Col 7, lines 45-55) (Col 8, lines 20-25); and a transfer unit adapted to transfer, to a predetermined communication link, output information corresponding to the second display information including the acquired management information (Col 7, lines 45-55).

Conclusion

Art Unit: 2144

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

US 6,175,838 by Papierniak et al, teaches about a method and apparatus for forming page map to present internet data meaningful to management and business operation.
